

Disclaimer

The purpose of the courses and programs of Beyond Burnout (known as 'the Program') is to assist people understand burnout and make changes in their lives through providing information and supporting reflection.

The Program is not intended to provide a medical or mental health diagnosis or substitute for medical or mental health advice. You acknowledge that we are not, nor do we hold ourselves to be, a doctor/physician or any other medical professional (Medical Provider). We are not, nor do we hold ourselves to be, a psychologist, psychiatrist, psychotherapist, counsellor or social worker (Mental Health Provider).

Whilst undertaking the courses and programs you must take complete responsibility for your own physical health and emotional well-being. You are advised to seek your own individualised medical and mental health assistance.

Services, training, coaching and materials offered through The Program have the potential to stir emotional or physical responses and/or stress. If you have been treated for, or believe you may have suffered from a psychological and/or traumatic injury, please consider if you are in a position to safely engage with the service or offering at this time, and/or consider enlisting the support of a professional who can be a resource to you both during and after. The Program is not liable for any distress participation might create.

The Program will at all times exercise our best professional efforts, skills and care. While we have made every attempt to ensure that the information contained in The Program has been obtained from reliable sources, the Program is not responsible for any errors or omissions, or for the results obtained from the use of this information. The program should not be construed as a prescription, a promise of benefits, claims of cures, or a guarantee of results to be achieved. All information in this program is provided "as is", with no guarantee of completeness, accuracy, timeliness and without warranty of any kind. We cannot make any guarantees other than to deliver the educational services as described.

In no event will the Program be liable to you or anyone else for any decision made or action taken in reliance on the information in this program or any losses, injuries, or damages from the use of this information.