

Daryl's Nature Journal Supply List

Hello and Welcome! Here is a list I'd like to share with you of my favourite journal supplies. These are only suggestions when you are ready to expand your noticing practice. All you need to begin is a pencil and a simple notebook.

If you like what I've recommended and you decide to purchase from your local supplier or on Amazon, I've included a link to each item. If you purchase using any of the links, I will be getting a small commission and I really appreciate your support. Thanks!
