

Well, hello friends. How are we?

My name is Remi. I am the founder of the online business temple.

Hello. It's lovely to meet you.

Yes, I'm very British, very, very British. I'm going to give you a little sneak peek as to what it looks like inside the online business temple.

Hopefully you can see this behind my, my round face over here. The owner, this is temple club is for anyone who has an online business and who wants to grow their business using my video coaching training.

So it's seven pounds a month. Absolutely nothing. And it is packed full of goodness. I'm going to show you what it looks like.

So when you come in well, in order to get in, all you have to do is click the link to say, you want to join, you, put your name, your email, address, your credit card number in or your debit card number. And it will take seven pounds a month. And that's it. You can just forget about it. It's done. You're in once you're in, you get a welcome message from me on the left-hand side, but the main areas that we want to focus on on the right-hand side, I've kept this as simple as I can.

There's two modules.

One is called tech training that you can see here. And then the other one is called business training. So that's all we focus on in this in this membership is business training and development and tech training. So let me just give you a sneak peek of what's in there already.

So at the time of during this sneak peak recording, we got 21 videos inside. So inside the tech training, we have modules and videos already on half set up a lead magnet, really useful.

If you're a business owner and you want to grow your audience, how to start a podcast with anchor, how to create a simple marketing plan how to create professional product mock-ups with Canva, Canva, basic training payment tools that you can use in your online business to bring income into your business fast.

So I walk you through how they work. There's another training video in here about how do you stream yard, which is a streaming video tool and that how that can help you to grow your business by using video content, how to organize your Gmail using filters and labels.

Now, this is really good. If you're disorganized, you wanna watch this video. I also have a Facebook training in here as well.

How to use Facebook for business, another brilliant training for you. We also have, this is the latest one, the SEO basics for beginners.

So you can come in and learn about SEO and how to optimize your website and your blog and all of those cool things.

And then I've put in here a a module on tech terminology for beginners. So if you're not familiar with some of the tech jargon that you hear, coaches and mentors spouting all the time, go check that one out.

Cause that's all explained in there for you. I've also put in this really cool training on a windows shortcut, sorry, Mac users.

I'm sure there is a Mac equivalent, but I've done the shortcut for windows and this shortcut will save you so much time in your business.

Trust me. You want to know what's in there. So come and get in the club. And then the last one I put in here that at the moment is for tech resources.

Now every month I will put a new video in, so every month you're guaranteed new contents to learn about tech training.

And then we're going to take you down to the business and let me show you what's inside the business training.

So we've also got in here create a simple marketing content plan. How clear is your business messaging? So that's all around your business messaging and the power of business messaging, like give you some real world examples of how that how that works, why it's so important, how to optimize your Facebook profiles and how to start a business.

I give you walk you through the setup and the framework of starting your own online business. And then there's topics in here in the business section about ideal client, your I help statement your pricing, how to use Instagram for business.

There will be stuff coming in here around creating your offers, your products and more stuff around audience building as well.

So all of that is stuff is coming into the online business temple club. So all you've got to do now is click the join now button and get yourself in, come and get some access to this.

I'd love to welcome you into the club. You can cancel at any time we don't hold a gun to your head. There's no contract where you gotta be in here for a year. Cancel any time, but I know you're going to love it.

And if you come in right now, you can binge on all of these videos and then bounce again. If you wanted to completely up to you, but I'd love to welcome you into the club.

I'd love to get to know you better. So hopefully see you on the inside.
